Dear Goldfinger, I wish very much you would go to Cairo to lecture. They need men such as you very badly there and you could do much good. And I think the interest and change wd.
be good for your own health.
Littmann has been here in Hartford and telling me of his lecture there. He was very sorry to hear that you had declined.

Goldfinger wrote to me several times, how much he had learned from you, how kind you and your wife had been and how you had helped him. If he gets any time to himself he is sure to do good work. You gave him trust in himself and courage, which he needed.

I have seen with great interest your review of his book in ZDMG. I have the book myself and I should be greatly helped in my reading if you could let me have an abstract of the review. I do not myself get the ZDMG.

With many greetings from us both to you and yours,

Very truly yours,
Duncan B. Macdonald
